

Sally Jones

456 XYZ Street, Des Moines, IA
555.555.5555
sallyj@central.edu

Objective

Internship at a counseling center to apply skills obtained from educational background in Psychology, work experience, and commitment to helping others.

Education

Central College, Pella, IA

Anticipated May 2011

Bachelor of Arts Degree in Psychology

GPA: 3.85/4.0

Relevant Coursework

- Psychological Investigations
- Psychopathology
- Multicultural issues in Psychology
- Experimental Psychology
- Fundamentals of Statistics
- Cognitive Psychology
- Advanced Research in Psychology
- SPSS for Psychological Research

Experience

First Christian Boys and Girls Club, Des Moines, IA

Summer 2009-Present

Youth Counselor

- Supervise over 100 multicultural children after school and all day during the summer and breaks from school
- Lead activities to promote the six pillars of character (respect, responsibility, caring trustworthiness, fairness, and citizenship)

Central College, Pella, IA

Summer 2009-Present

Student Orientation Services (S.O.S) Leader

- Oversee a group of 12 incoming freshmen students
- Plan ice breakers and lead activities to promote knowledge about Central College and its campus
- Act as a resource for questions and concerns about college life to both students and parents

Boys and Girls Clubs of Central Iowa, Des Moines, IA

June 2009-August 2009

Data Collection

- Surveyed 150 boys and girls ages 5-18 about relationships with staff, quality of the club, and about their wants and needs
- Coordinated with three different clubs in order to obtain a representative sample
- Entered data into an SPSS file, analyzed results, and created a data analysis report for the administration team

Honors and Awards

Central College Dean's List

Fall 2007-Present

Psi Chi (Psychology Honor Society) Member and Secretary

Spring 2009-Present

Computer Skills

Microsoft Office Word 2007, Microsoft Office PowerPoint 2007, PASW Statistics 17